

Smoke on the Mountain

Smoke on the Mountain, conceived by Alan Bailey and written by Connie Ray, is a magnificent blend of story and song. Originally produced by the McCarter Theatre Company of Princeton, New Jersey, Smoke on the Mountain ran twice to thunderous applause at off-Broadway's Lamb's Theatre in New York City. It has now become one of the most produced shows in the country.

In Branson, this much-loved production has found a permanent home in the intimate and up-close setting of the Little Opry Theatre, inside the Branson's IMAX Entertainment Complex.

Set in North Carolina in 1938, Smoke on the Mountain follows the Sanders Family Singers as they perform at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church's Saturday Night Gospel Sing! Meet a talented family... quirky, flawed and uniquely entertaining!

Become the congregation and enjoy over 30 classic gospel tunes like well-known favorites such as "I'll Fly Away" and "Amazing Grace" – and lesser recognized gems like "Filling Station" and "Christian Cowboy" – that bring us all back to a much simpler time. Laugh at the family's crazy antics, sing along and witness a heartwarming conclusion that reminds us all what it means to be a family.

This unique production of Smoke on the Mountain, revived in 2009, is blessed to have the hand of its own creator guiding it. Co-author, Alan Bailey was brought in to co-direct the new production and allows the ensemble cast to fully embody his true vision...making Smoke on the Mountain in Branson a one-of-a-kind experience.

Smoke on the Mountain performs Tuesday thru Saturday, nightly at 8 pm.
